Happy new year to all! Here's what's been happening at Hanrick Curran over the festive season.

New Directors Appointed

The Partners of Hanrick Curran would like to congratulate Louis Fouche, Manny Diacaris and Tony Hunt on their appointment as Directors of the firm effective 1 January 2009. Louis, Manny and Tony were previously Associate Directors of the firm and will be crucial to the ongoing success of Hanrick Curran.

Christmas party

Hanrick Curran celebrated the completion of another successful year with the annual staff Christmas party, this year held at Gambaro's. A great time was had by all with great food and good times the order of the day.

Smart Cookie

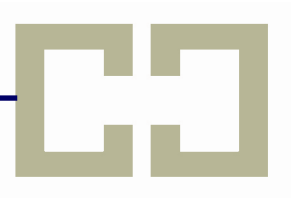

Congratulations to Emily who recently graduated with a Bachelor of Commerce (Accounting) from the University of Queensland. No doubt Emily's holidays were more relaxing than usual with uni out of the way.

New Starters

Hanrick Curran welcomes Tom, Carl, David and Matthew as graduates commencing work with the firm this year. We also welcome Taryn and Sharon, who had worked at the firm last year, to professional roles in 2009.

Globe Trotters

The Hanrick Curran audit team spread their wings over Christmas with the team covering all corners of the globe. Christy holidayed in the UK, while Viv returned to India to visit family, Azam to Pakistan, Wendy to Singapore and Bhavi to the US. These guys are certainly doing their bit to stimulate the global economy!

ATO Appointment

For those not aware Peter Maletz was recently appointed to the ATO National Tourism & Hospitality Industry Partnership Committee. This Committee is comprised of ATO and various private sector / industry group representatives (including. QANTAS, Virgin, Restaurant & Caterers Association, AFTA, Department of Tourism & Resources). Lets hope Pete can achieve what the Democrats couldn't and keep the buggers honest!
